Videolingo Privacy Policy

This Privacy Policy describes how Videolingo collects, uses and protects the personal information you provide when using our Google Chrome extension.

Information collected:

1. Account Information: When using Videolingo, you can create an account that requires certain personal information, such as name, email address, and language preferences.
2. Usage Data: We collect data about your interaction with the extension, including videos viewed, language learning progress, and other activities related to the use of the extension.
3. Device Information: We may collect information about the device you use to access Videolingo, such as device type, operating system version, and unique device ID.

Use of information:

1. Service Improvement: We use the information collected to improve and personalize your experience with Videolingo, including optimizing content recommendations and language learning functionality.
2. Communication: We may use your email address to send updates, news related to the extension or important notifications about changes to the terms and conditions.

Share information:

1. Service Providers: We may share information with third party service providers who help us provide and maintain the extension. These third parties are required to maintain the confidentiality of your information.
2. Legal Compliance: We may disclose personal information if required to do so by law or to protect our legal rights.

Security of the information:

We implement security measures to protect personal information against loss, misuse and unauthorized access.

Your options:

You can choose not to provide certain personal information, however this may affect the functionality and overall experience when using Videolingo.

Changes to the privacy policy:

We reserve the right to update this Privacy Policy. We recommend that you periodically review this page to be aware of any changes.
